FARM-ETTES

Take the farm-to-table concept home, as many resort-residence developments are supporting the fresh, organic, grow-your-own trend by offering farming experiences alongside homes, condos, and homesites.

Timbers Kauai at Hokuala

Kauai, Hawaii

Timbers has transformed 16.5 acres from an overgrown golf course into The Farm at Hokuala, an organic farm and orchard that provides ingredients for the resort community's signature dining venue, Hualani's. The farm also offers homeowners their own private gardens for those who want to pick their own greens, vegetables, pineapples, and edible flowers. The Farm at Hokuala also offers Paint and Sip classes to recreate the surrounding landscapes on canvas.
